Use and Value of Money.

The Mothers' and Teachers' Club are distributing to mothers and teachers the following circular, the text of which is self-explanatory:

The Use and Value of Money.

The Mothers' and Teachers' Club is to discuss the use and value of money at their meeting in May. The opinions of all who know children will be the most valuable basis for discussion. Any who will fill out the accompanying blank and return to Mrs. Dyke at the April meeting will further the work of the club.

Should children be paid for domestic services? Is there any danger of developing selfishness?

Should children be taught the economic value of their clothing, food, etc.?

Should children be taught to accumulate money for some specific purpose or merely for the sake of accumulation?

Should children be given a regular allowance?

Should children be taught to give to their friends, or to organizations, such as missionary associations?

Ah Sang was acquitted of larceny by a jury before Judge Oscar this morning.

George W. Macfarlane was appointed guardian of Alene Macfarlane, minor, by Judge Humphreys this morning.
